

⚡ SUPERPLASTIC ⚡

Character Actor

LOCATION

Burlington, VT. Consultant (Contract)

REPORTING TO

Senior Director, Content

POSITION OVERVIEW

Superplastic is looking for an engaging and hilarious Character Actor with a passion for gaming to bring life to an animated character in live streams and video content. As a key member to the creative team, you will embody the character's personality, mannerisms, and humor to engage with audiences during live performances. The ideal candidate should be a skilled gamer, have a knack for comedy, and have the ability to adapt to various roles or scenarios.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Bring a Superplastic animated character to life through various platforms on social media.
- Rehearse and perform live streams on a weekly basis, interacting with audiences in real-time while staying on character.
- Infuse humor and wit into the characters' interactions, improvising when needed to keep the audiences entertained and engaged.
- Display proficiency in playing video games. This includes but is not limited to games like Fortnite, Minecraft, Roblox, and more.
- Work closely with the Superplastic Creative team to develop the character's personality and storyline to enhance the overall performance.
- Train on how to use motion capture equipment and software, ensuring smooth operation during rehearsals and performances.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Must be 18 years of age or older to apply. Must live within commuting distance of Burlington, Vermont.

- Experience and skill playing video games. You don't need to be exceptional, just need to understand game mechanics.
- Must have an understanding of video games and gaming culture, with the ability to speak in depth about different game genres, mechanics and platforms.
- Experience streaming on Twitch or Youtube Live is preferred, but not required.
- Proven experience in acting, comedy or improvisation is a plus, but not required.
- Excellent verbal communication skills, with the ability to engage and entertain audiences on and off-camera.
- Collaborative mindset with the ability to work effectively with a creative and technical team.
- Willingness to work flexible hours, including evenings and possibly weekends to accommodate live stream schedules and production timelines.
